

"I've been coming to High Holiday services here for close to ten years. Every year offers a comfortable atmosphere and an opportunity to implement new spiritual growth. A unique experience unlike anything I have been part of before."

- Jeff

"I've come to feel extremely comfortable in this warm, friendly community. Even with many of us at different levels of observance, everyone feels connected. I find it to be very non-judgmental. The leadership really cares about the congregants and is very approachable."

- Mariana

"The first thing that strikes you is how beautiful the main sanctuary is, for me at least, the aesthetics certainly heighten my spiritual experience. I also very much appreciate the sincere yet warm and easygoing tone that Rabbi Yochanon and Rebbetzin Leah Goldman set as our shul's religious leaders."

- Adam

"B'nai Abraham is a second home for my family to play, pray and enjoy company. Whenever my family comes, we are greeted with a smile, a friend, and usually a great meal!"

- Rebecca

"My first Shabbat sums up why it's a fantastic place to be. I was immediately met with welcoming arms, as if I were a brother who had recently returned home from a long absence. The davening is rousing, the community is heartfelt, and the kiddish is delectable; it's unimaginable how B'nai Abraham has been a recent discovery, because it feels like home."

- Aaron
